PAMPERED CHEF AND JACKET ORDERS DUE THIS WEEKEND

Pampered Chef and jacket orders need to be turned in to Michelle Clark before leaving Gray Court. We hope everyone gave it their best shot and qualified for some goodies from Pampered Chef!

Bareback Riding/Safety Clinic Saturday in Gray Court

The Clinic will be held Saturday, 10am at the Gray Court Rodeo. The following topics will be demonstrated and you will have hands on experience.

- Safety and chute procedure
- Equipment inspection
- Efficacy tips and techniques in how to be better prepared for your event
- Step by step instructions from mounting to dismounting your horse
- Your ride on Friday night will be videoed and you will have the opportunity to have your ride evaluated.

Western attire is required. Bring all your equipment with you as if you were going to a rodeo. Come with an open mind and be ready to sharpen your skills. You may want to take a few notes, so bring a note pad & pen.

Keep Up With The Contestants - How'd they do?

Point Sheets: If you like keeping up with points during the rodeo, you can buy a blank points sheet to fill in at the sign-in table for $1.00 before the rodeo.

GOOD LUCK CONTESTANTS!

COWGIRL ROPERS NEEDED!!

Two clinics are being planned for Saturday morning of the Marshville rodeo. This is a chance to learn how to goat tie, improve your skills in goat tying, and to improve your breakaway skills. Sarah Beth Turner and Lindsey Heid are the planned presenters. Both of these girls are award winning goat tyers and ropers. The breakaway clinic will be from 9 AM to 11 AM and the goat clinic will be from 11AM to 1 PM. The cost of the clinic is $30 for both or $20 for one clinic. This is a great practice opportunity.
